Trail Boss Letter

Yetta Hey,

I hope everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving. I cannot even believe a full year has passed. It has been an honor to lead such a wonderful group. Looking into the near future we have some important things to prepare for a successful year. Casino Night is the biggest concern. We need a group effort to make this event an exceptional one. Every outpost will be responsible for a bottle of booze (vodka, whiskey, gin, rum, etc... NO PUCKER or filler liquors), as well as a prize basket (these should be able to get donated and all members of the outpost should participate to help with cost.) We also need our gambling table sponsors. The sponsors will be recognized throughout the night on our video slide show, be recognized on every table in our pamphlet for the night, and also be mentioned before a sideboard drawing. Full Table = $200 Half Table = $100. Turn all donations in to the Trail Boss. The second biggest thing we will need to start doing is selling the raffle tickets. If you would like to spend some time as an outpost at ACME on Pleasant Valley, please contact your Trail Boss to schedule the time and date. This is an easy way to sell out of your raffle tickets and sell even more to help keep our events as fun and affordable as possible. If you need wristbands for the event, please let your territory scout know. We will be trying to move towards registering for all events online through our website. It is very important to register for each event. At this time, I would like to recognize Joe LiPuma for being such an extraordinary Assistant Trail Boss and wish him luck on being our 2020 Trail Boss.

Story Teller Story

It's getting close to that time of year, again. The chill in the air brings out the carolers and mailboxes full of cards. It is during the holiday season that the United States is at its most generous monetarily wise. Shoppers pack into malls, looking for the perfect gift for their loved ones.

Unfortunately, with all the hectic rushing here and there, we often forget about the real magic of the season: the gift of our personal time. While this is often the most inexpensive present we can give, we overlook the impact it has on people we have the pleasure of helping.

In keeping with the season of sharing, Madison, Reagan and I came up with some fun gift giving ideas:

- Offer to help an elderly neighbor address Christmas cards.
- Organize a food drive in your neighborhood for a local shelter.
- Volunteer to help deliver Christmas dinners to the elderly.
- Drop off goodies to those who are less fortunate.
- Offer to help a brother or sister make a present for a family member.
- Anonymously help out a neighbor by shoveling their sidewalks.
- Volunteer to visit a nursing home and read one or two Christmas stories.

We hope you find some time in your busy schedule to try some of these fun ideas. We know that we are planning on trying some of these ourselves.

With that said, we would like to wish all of you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Yetta Hey! Sam, Madison and Reagan Lupica

Hey Dads, too busy to be an Adventure Princess Officer but still want to help out?

Pitch in as a Trail Hand when the organization needs a little extra help.

Trail Hands are dads who volunteer to help out at a Frontier event. They support the event OIC (Officer In Charge) as needed. Acting as a Trail Hand is a great way to learn how the organization operates, help a fellow dad, and display the act of volunteering to your daughter.

Contact Trail Boss or Assistant Trail Boss if you are interested.
